

ALL-OHIO STATE FAIR BAND

2017
Staff Members

Brian W. Dodd
Director

Brian W. Dodd enters his 11th year on the staff and 2nd year as Director of the All-Ohio State Fair Band. Previously, he served as Assistant Director in charge of Percussion. He received his Bachelor Degree in Music Education from The Ohio State University and is in his 33rd year as a music educator and 19th year as Director of Bands at West Holmes High School in Millersburg. Mr. Dodd currently directs 235 students in the schools two concert bands, as well as jazz, pep and marching bands and percussion ensemble. The ensembles are active year round having performed throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania, Washington D.C. and Florida while playing regularly for the Cleveland Cavaliers and the Annual Holiday Parade in Pittsburgh. He is a Certified Red Cross First Aid and CPR instructor, former National Honor Society Adviser, was OMEA District 10 Chairman. He hosts the district's Large Group Adjudicated Event and was awarded the OHSAA Sportsmanship, Ethics & Integrity Award. He is an active performer, is a member of the American Federation of Musicians Local #159, an Adjunct Music Faculty member at Mount Vernon Nazarene University and has had members in the AOSFB for 33 years! He and his wife Lori currently reside in Bladensburg Ohio.

Edward P. Gallagher (F Horn, '84-'87) is in his 30th year as a member staff and 2nd year serving as Director of Operations for both the AOSFB and All-Ohio State Fair Youth Choir. Mr. Gallagher previously served as an equipment manager, counselor and camp manager. He received his degree in music therapy from Cleveland State University and received his Graduate Certificate in Nonprofit Management from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Currently, he is Director of Education at Beck Center for the Arts in Lakewood, is Past President of the Cleveland Arts Education Consortium and Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the AOSFB Alumni Association, and has been appointed to serve on the Ohio Arts Council's Artists with Disabilities Access Program. He received the 2015 Director's Service Award from the AOSFYC, 2007 Service Award from the Great Lakes Region of the American Music Therapy Association and was inducted into The Ohio State Fair Hall of Fame in 2007. He and his wife Lisa are parents of AOSFB Alum, Megan.

Wes Campbell (Bass Clarinet, '12-'14) returns for a 2nd year as a member of the equipment staff this year. He is an operations specialist at Integrity Express Logistics in Cincinnati. He is an avid theme park enthusiast. When he was in the AOSFB he received the band's Omar P. Blackman Award, appeared on RFDTV's Small Town Big Deal, and Columbus's NBC4 morning Show.

William Ciabattari returns for a 11th year as Assistant Director working with Low brass. Dr. Ciabattari received his B.S.E. in music education from the University of Arkansas, his Masters of Music from the Cleveland Institute of Music, and his Ph.D. in Music Education from Case Western Reserve University. Currently, he is Associate Professor of Music and Director of Instrumental Ensembles at Lycoming College in Pennsylvania, a position he was appointed to in 2006. He is conductor of the concert band, jazz ensemble, and pep band while also teaching courses in instrumental conducting, music theory and music education. He is conductor of the Williamsport Symphony Youth Orchestra. Previously, he served on the faculty of Heidelberg College, was a high school director and was Assistant Director of the Cleveland Youth Wind Symphony. He has performed extensively as a freelance musician with the likes of the Cleveland Orchestra, Cleveland Pops, North Arkansas Symphony, and the Blossom Festival Band.

James R. "Tank" Esswein returns for his 48th year on the All-Ohio staff as an Operations Associate and also as Librarian, a post he has held for 18 years. He has served as Assistant Camp Manager and Equipment Manager for the Band and Youth Symphony. He received his music degree from The Ohio State University and is a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa Psi and Phi Mu Alpha music fraternities. Mr. Esswein was a music educator for the Columbus Public Schools and retired in 2004 after 35 years of service. He performs in numerous groups including OSU Alumni Band and Mendelssohn Liedertasel to name a few. He is Past Master of Goodale Lodge #372 Free and Accepted Masons. He was Teacher of the Year at Wedgewood Middle School in 1994, and Columbus Crew Stadium Employee of the Year in 2000. He dotted the "I" at the 1969 Rose Bowl. He was inducted into the Ohio State Fair Hall of Fame in 2006 and is the Director of the AOSFB Alumni Band.

Greg Eyer (Drum Major, '89-'81) has been recommending drum majors to the AOSFB for numerous years and returns for his 7th official year as volunteer drum major coordinator. He is a native of Bucyrus and attended The Ohio State University where he was in the marching band and a member of D-row in '82-'83. He won the top spot to be drum major in '85 held the head drum major position through the '86 season when he decided to end his career. Greg never held the assistant drum major position, a rarity for any OSU drum major. While drum major, Eyer had the opportunity to perform for crowds at the Citrus Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Browns-Broncos playoff game, and the Kickoff Classic. Eyer is still very involved in twirling, and can be seen performing as drum major with the OSU Alumni Band. In his spare time, Eyer also takes pride in teaching hopeful OSUMB drum majors the style they need to succeed.

Dr. Otis French enters his first year on the staff as Assistant Director in charge of Low brass. He holds a Doctor of Musical Arts in Instrumental Conducting from the University of Maryland, a Master of Music Degree in Conducting from Indiana University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Music and Business Administration from Saint Leo University. Dr. French serves as the Director of Bands and Instrumental Activities at the University of Mount Union. He served in the Army Music Program for over 24 years as a performer, officer and conductor having commanded Army bands in the US and Germany. Dr. French retired at the rank of Major in 2002. He has served as Director of Bands at the college level and was an assistant high school band director. He is an active guest conductor, clinician, adjudicator, Euphonium soloist, and marching band show designer. He has given professional presentations on conducting at National and State Music Education conferences. He was awarded the Citation for Musical Excellence by the National Band Association.

Lisa M. Gallagher returns for the 18th year on the staff and will be serving as Administrative Assistant. Mrs. Gallagher received her undergraduate degree in music therapy from Ohio University and Masters in Counseling from Walsh University. She is the Research Program Manager for the Arts & Medicine Institute at the Cleveland Clinic, is pursuing her PhD in health psychology and behavioral medicine from Northcentral University, and is the Immediate Past President of the Great Lakes Region of the American Music Therapy Association. She received the 2013 Association of Ohio Music Therapists Past Presidents Club Award for service to the profession, the 2008 Blair L. Sadler International Healing Arts Award, and the 2007 Scholarly Activities Award from the Great Lakes Region of the American Music Therapy Association for her research, presentations, and service. She and her husband Ed are parents to AOSFB Alum, Megan.

Megan M. Gallagher (Flag, '11-'12, Trumpet, '13-'16) joins the staff as an Operations Associate. She is in her first year at Baldwin Wallace University where she is an Arts Management and Entrepreneurship Major as well as a dance minor. She graduated from Magnificat High School in 2016 and was presented with the John Philip Sousa Award in her senior year. This summer she received the Shining Star Youth Award from Beck Center for the Arts in Lakewood.

Robert Gardner, DDS (Clarinet, '84-'86) returns for a 5th year as a volunteer member of the Operations Staff. He graduated from Ohio State University with a degree in dental hygiene and later with a Doctorate in Dental Surgery. Through the years he has provided emergency services to members of the AOSFB at his office in Clintonville. Dr. Gardner and his wife, Julie, have four daughters, Hanna, Emiley (AOSFB '13-'14), Ashley and Lilly (AOSFB, '13). He currently serves on the Civil Service Commission in Grove City and is a Past President of the AOSFB Alumni Association.

Mendell R. Hibbard enters his 2nd year as Assistant Director in charge of Percussion. He is a music faculty member at Capital University, a position he took after teaching in public schools for 34 years, with 27 years in Columbus City Schools. He earned a bachelor of music degree from Ohio University and a Master of Arts degree from Ohio State University. He is an active member of the Ohio Music Education Association as a past district president and a current adjudicator. He is involved with several community theater organizations as a music director, pit orchestra conductor and player.

Sandra Kemerer (Clarinet, '77-'78) returns for a 6th year with the Band, serving as a part-time volunteer Operations Associate. She received her Bachelor's in Organizational Communication as well as her Master's in Education in Family and Consumer Science Education from The Ohio State University. Mrs. Kemerer teaches at Whitehall Yearling High School. She has been continuing her education and will soon complete her Teaching English as a Second Language license endorsement requirements. She and her husband, Chuck, along with daughters Erin and Sara, reside in Central Ohio.

Susan Keserich (Oboe, '99-'02) enters her 2nd year as an Assistant Director in charge of Clarinets and Oboes. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Cincinnati College - Conservatory of Music and her Master of Music degree from Cleveland State University. She has spent her entire career in the Barberton City Schools and is Director of Bands at Barberton Middle School, directing the sixth, seventh, and eighth grade concert and jazz bands, and also assists with the high school concert and marching programs. Mrs. Keserich is a member of the Ohio Music Education Association, the National Association for Music Education, Sigma Alpha Iota Professional Music Fraternity for Women, and Women Band Director's International. She has performed with the Mansfield Symphony, Warren Philharmonic, Cleveland Pops, Cleveland Philharmonic, and Cleveland Winds, among others. Mrs. Keserich lives in Medina with her husband (whom she met at the AOSFB) and two children.

Dr. Earle L. Louder enters his 12th year as Assistant Director and Low Brass Specialist. Dr. Louder received his undergraduate degree from Michigan State University and his Doctorate Degree from Florida State University. For twelve seasons he was the featured euphonium soloist, principal euphonium, and Head of the Brass Department of the US Navy Band in Washington, D.C. Dr. Louder was Resident Artist, Professor of Euphonium, Trombone and Tuba, and Associate Director of Bands at Morehead State University in Kentucky for 28 years. Currently, in retirement, he performs with numerous ensembles including Keith Brion's New Sousa Band and for 26 years performed with The Cleveland Orchestra Blossom Festival Band as featured soloist and principal euphonium. Between 1992 and 2003, Dr. Louder conducted the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp concert band and choral ensembles on six Blue Lake Exchange Program European Concert Tours.

Parker J. Maas (Bassoon, '10-'12) is entering his 4th year on staff serving on the equipment staff. He is a graduate of Bowling Green State University with a degree in Music Education. Parker is a music educator for the North Central Local Schools in Pioneer, OH where he teaches band, choir and general music in grades K-12. Parker is also the organist and choir director at Trinity Episcopal Church in Findlay, the director of the Putnam County Community Band and a piano technician.

Jennifer C. McDowell (Clarinet, '89-'92) returns for her 23rd year as a member staff where she serves as an Operations Associate. Jennifer is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame where she was a member of the Band of the Fightin' Irish and received her Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences. Mrs. McDowell is the Director of Public Programs at Stan Hywet Hall and Gardens in Akron. She is a Certified Interpretive Guide through the National Association for Interpretation and serves on the Board for the Great Lakes Region as Deputy Director. Mrs. McDowell is a Past President of the AOSFB Alumni Association, and she and her husband Andrew reside in Lorain County with their two children.

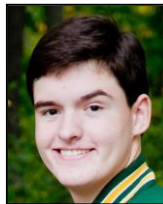

Dr. Brian D. Meyers (Tenor Sax, '90) is back for his 2nd year as the Assistant Director in charge of Saxophones, Flutes and Bassoons. Dr. Meyers received his undergraduate degree from Capital University, where he studied with James Swearingen and Dr. Timothy Swinehart. He also received his M.M and D.M.A. degrees in music education from Arizona State University. He is currently an Assistant Professor of Music at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he teaches a variety of music education courses. Prior to this, Dr. Meyers served on the faculty of Adelphi University in New York for 4 years as well as 13 years as a high school band director in Ohio and Arizona. His work and research, largely on the history of instrumental music education, has been presented nationally and internationally and has appeared in various journals.

Van Parker (French Horn, '10-'12) joins the staff as an Assistant Director working with the Upper Brass Section – French Horns and Trumpets. Mr. Parker received his Bachelor of Music in French horn performance from the Oberlin Conservatory and a Master of Music from Northwestern University. Based in Cleveland, he is a member of the Firelands Symphony in Sandusky, Cleveland Winds, and Principal horn of the Colour of Music Festival Orchestra in Charleston, SC which is a unique ensemble showcasing the talents of black musicians from around the country. He has appeared with the Akron, Ashland, Lima, Mansfield, and Youngstown Symphonies. Highly sought after as a clinician and private lesson instructor, he has guided students to success at several elite performing ensembles and institutions, Mr. Parker is also the French horn coach for the Cleveland Youth Wind Symphony and the Northern Ohio Youth Orchestra. He is an active member of the AOSFB Alumni Association and serves as the organization's Vice President.

Dakota Parrish (Tuba, '10-'12) is returning for his 5th year on the staff as Equipment Manager and Operations Associate. He graduated with a Bachelor of the Arts in Music from Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, OH in 2016. He is the Assistant Manager of Music and Arts in Worthington where his duties include overseeing instrument sales and scheduling of music lessons. In addition, he teaches private violin and tuba lessons. He will be pursuing a Master of the Arts in Brass Pedagogy in the near future. He was formerly an Assistant Teacher for the Northland Summer Music Camp for 4 years. He has performed with many groups including the National Honors Orchestra of America in 2012 as Principal Tubist.

Donald F. Santa-Emma enters his 44th year on the staff and the 2nd year in his role of Director Emeritus having recently retired as Director of the AOSFB after 17 years on the podium. He received his undergraduate degree from The Ohio State University and his Master's Degree from Austin Peay State University. His doctoral course work was completed at the University of Kentucky. Mr. Santa-Emma served as Director of Fine Arts Education for the Cleveland Public Schools where he supervised over 200 teachers. He has received numerous citations and awards, including The Distinguished Service Award for Music Education from The Ohio State University, The Industry Service Award from the Ohio Music Education Association, induction into the Ohio State Fair Hall of Fame, and The Hall of Fame of his high school, West Technical High School. He was recipient of the Martha Holden Jennings Teacher/Leader Award and a Master Teacher Citation from The Cleveland Public Schools. He is President Emeritus of the 1500 member Cleveland Federation of Musicians, Local 4, American Federations of Musicians and currently, serves as music contractor for Cleveland's Playhouse Square, America's second largest performing arts center.

Melissa L. Spangler (Flute/Piccolo, '89-'91) is returning for her 20th year with the AOSFB as an Operations Associate. Ms. Spangler is a Certified Academic Language Therapist with a Master of Arts in Education degree from Baldwin Wallace University. She completed her undergraduate work in Elementary Education at John Carroll University. Ms. Spangler has worked for the Rocky River City School District since 2000. During that time she has worked as a Reading Tutor at the high school, intermediate and middle schools. She is currently a Reading Teacher at Rocky River Middle School and the district's Phonemic Awareness and Literacy Coordinator. Prior to teaching in the Rocky River City School District, Ms. Spangler taught Kindergarten and first grade at private schools in the Cleveland area. Presently she serves on the Board of Directors of the Northern Ohio Branch of the International Dyslexia Association and is a member of the Academic Language Therapy Association and the International Literacy Association.

